South Vietnam below the so-called Demilitarized Zone, the trip-wire zone would be more than 40 miles wide.

McNamara refused to say whether it would also cut across Laos through the jungle network of roads that make up the Ho Chi Minh trail, used by Hanoi to get men into South Vietnam.

Opponents of the barrier concept have said if the strip lies only in North Vietnam, the North Vietnamese will be able to make an "end-around" play to infiltrate the South.

Work already is under way to clear jungle from a stretch approximately 15 miles wide and 600 yards deep below the Demilitarized Zone.

The soil poisoners are to be used because military commanders have found that thriving vegetation starts growing back almost as quickly as bulldozers clear a strip.

In response to questions, the Pentagon said commercial farm chemicals developed and produced in the United States for such work as clearing railroad rights of way will be used on the strip. Specifically mentioned were two agents called chlorophenyl dimethyl urea and diisopropyl dimethyl urea.

The Pentagon said the chemicals won't harm animals or people but will prevent plant life for about a year.

Executive to Take Leave of Absence

LITTLE ROCK (AP)— Little Rock's Urban Progress Association has granted its executive director a four-month leave of absence to serve as executive secretary of the state Governmental Efficiency Study Commission, it was announced here Thursday by Commissioners Lee Roy Beasley and Warren E. Bray.

Beasley, of El Dorado, chairman of the commission, and Bray, of Little Rock, chairman of the commission's Manpower Committee, also announced that business and industrial leaders around the state had pledged the services of 25 other executives.

About 41 executives are needed to conduct the study, which will be directed by Warren King & Associates, a consulting firm.

George Wildgen, 32, of North Little Rock, the Urban Progress Association's executive secretary since 1963, is a native of Canon City, Colo.

Surveyor 5 Takes Off Perfectly

By HOWARD BENDICT
Aerospace Writer

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)— Riding into space on the most accurate moon rocket ever launched by the United States, Surveyor 5 landed today toward a lunar soft landing with a camera and a small chemistry lab to analyze the soil.

The mooncraft launching before dawn today climaxed a spectacular space doubleheader that started Thursday night with the orbiting of millions of "astrobombs" and plants in a biomedical laboratory named Biosatellite 2.

Spider-shaped Surveyor 5 started its intended 65-hour 221,575-mile lunar journey aboard an Atlas-Centaur rocket that blasted away from Cape Kennedy at 3:57 a.m. EDT.

Several hours later, the flight control center at Jet Propulsion Laboratory, Pasadena, Calif., reported the craft was on a near-perfect course that was only 37 miles off its target point in the Sea of Tranquility.

That's the most accurate shooting yet in 27 American moon landings.

"We're on a real good course that will require only a small midcourse motor correction to hit the aiming point," a project official said. He added that all systems aboard the craft were working well.

The moon vehicle is to settle gently onto the moon's surface Sunday night to investigate a potential astronaut landing site with a camera and a miniature chemistry lab that may, for the first time, tell scientists what elements are present in the lunar soil.

The planned touchdown area is in the Sea of Tranquility 24 miles from the Crater Moltke.

The two-shot spectacular started at 6:04 p.m. Thursday when Biosatellite 2 and its cargo of more than 10 million insects, plants and bacteria rode a Delta rocket into an orbit about 200 miles above the earth.

During three days in space, the specimens are to grow, reproduce and eat to determine how biological processes are affected by space weightlessness and radiation.

The strange passenger list included parasitic wasps, vinegar gnats, flour beetles, pepper plants, wheat seedlings, frog eggs, amoebae and bacteria.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration reported some difficulty in sending radio commands to the Biosatellite. Officials said they were overcoming the problem by repeatedly transmitting each command until it is accepted by the payload.

The Biosatellite launching was delayed more than three hours by technical difficulties including the late discovery that a switch—part of the parachute deployment system—had been installed backwards.

The wrong installation resulted because the blueprint for the system was drawn incorrectly, an official reported.

Both missions are to reach critical stages a few hours apart on Sunday. These are points at which the earlier Surveyor 4 and Biosatellite 1 payloads failed.

About 3 p.m. (EDT) Biosatellite 2 is to fire its retro-rocket and re-enter the atmosphere over the Pacific Ocean near Hawaii. An Air Force plane will attempt to snag the parachute as the payload descends. The retro-rocket failed on the first Biosatellite last December, ruining the flight.

About 9 p.m., Surveyor 5 is to ignite its braking rocket for the touchdown on the moon. All contact was lost with Surveyor 4 shortly after its rocket fired and moments before it was to land in July.

Mills Will Insist on Spending Cut

LITTLE ROCK (AP)— The House Ways and Means Committee will insist on a reduction in federal spending as a condition for reporting out President Johnson's bill for a 10 per cent income tax surcharge, its chairman predicted in an interview here Thursday.

Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., said he didn't know what position the committee would take on the bill, but that if it decided the bill was needed, he was sure the committee would insist on "definite steps—not promises" to reduce spending.

Mills said the committee would resume public hearings on the measure next Tuesday, after congress returns from its Labor Day recess. Private deliberations probably will begin Sept. 18, he said.

The Second District congressman said he thought his committee would "take the view that it's not fair to expect the taxpayer to pull in his belt without the government doing the same thing."

"Naturally the reductions will be in the non-defense area, and perhaps in the defense area not related to Vietnam," Mills said.

In its hearings, the Ways and Means Committee will be seeking answers to several questions, Mills said. Among them: —Would the economy become so inflationary without a tax increase that the consumer would be paying out more in higher prices than he would with a tax increase?

—If the nation is going to experience inflation, would a tax increase stop it?

—Would a tax increase stop economic growth?

Mills said witnesses next week would include William McChesney Martin, chairman of the Federal Reserve Board; C. Douglas Dillon, former secretary of the treasury; Stuart Saunders, chairman of the board of the Pennsylvania Railroad; and a group of economists who will present what Mills termed a "panel discussion of the issues."

WR Says He'll Be Favorite Son Choice

ASHEVILLE, N. C. (AP)— Two state chief executives who might have favorite son presidential ambitions likely will add to the pre-campaign year politics at the Southern Governors' Conference that will be held here Sunday through Wednesday.

Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller of Arkansas, a Republican, says he will be the favorite son presidential choice of his state delegation to the GOP convention in 1968 if it serves the interests of the Arkansas Republican party.

Louisiana Gov. John J. McKeithan, a Democrat, reportedly has ambitions to be a favorite son candidate.

Among state chief executives not planning to attend the conference is Gov. Claude R. Kirk Jr. of Florida, a Republican. His recent meeting with Gov. Ronald Reagan of California raised speculation about his vice presidential aspirations.

Gov. Lurleen B. Wallace of Alabama also will not be in Asheville for the conference. She has sent word that she must go to Houston, Tex., Sunday for a medical checkup in connection with her recent cancer surgery.

Pryor Says Nobody for Tax Increase

CAMDEN, Ark. (AP)— The public now seems to be inclined toward pulling out of Vietnam if all-out bombing of North Vietnam doesn't halt the conflict, Rep. David Pryor, D-Ark., said in an interview here Thursday.

The Fourth District congressman said he had detected a change in the nation's attitude during the past 90 days, and that there were "a lot of respectable doves walking around Washington now."

Pryor said he thought people felt that the war was at an impasse, and would favor all-out bombing, short of using nuclear weapons.

Pryor also was questioned about his own political future, President Johnson's re-election prospects, the president's proposed 10 per cent tax surcharge and the recent activities and statements of Black Power advocates Stokely Carmichael and H. Rap Brown of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee.

Some political observers have said that the only Democratic hope of unseating Republican Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller next year would be to pit Pryor against him in a "David and Goliath" contest, but Pryor squelched rumors that he intended to seek the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

"I have no plans to run against Rockefeller," he said. Pryor, elected to his first two-year term in the House last year, refused to comment on speculation that he intended to sit tight until 1972, when he could seek the seat held by Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark.

He said he thought President Johnson would have a "close, tough" fight in Arkansas if he chose to seek re-election next year, but that the only GOP ticket capable of beating him would team Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York with Gov. Ronald Reagan of California.

Pryor said he wouldn't vote for Johnson's proposed tax increase, because he thought domestic spending could be cut before such an increase would be needed.

"I haven't received a single letter in favor of the tax increase," he said.

Carmichael and Brown should be brought to trial for treason, he said, because both had "gone past the protection of freedom of speech."

Mayor Lets Rioters Show 'Bad Manners'

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP)— Civil rights demonstrators staged a "sit-in" Thursday in the City Hall office of Mayor Henry Maier and left it damaged and clogged with debris.

Police, who had been told by the mayor to let the demonstrators "show the nation their bad manners," arrested five of the group of nearly 100 after fighting broke out in the waiting room outside Maier's executive office.

About 35 persons arrived in early afternoon, led by the Rev. R. M. Kinlock of New York City, and sat down in Maier's outer office. They said they were staging a sit-in in favor of an open housing ordinance.

Maier and several aides worked their way through the group and the mayor said he had a schedule to keep but would meet them any time to talk without the presence of the press and television cameras.

After he left, the group was joined by about 75 others, nearly all Negroes.

During the four hours of their stay in the outer office, a mayor's spokesman said the demonstrators:

Ripped the stuffing from 11 upholstered chairs, each valued at about $200;

Defaced a large mural of the city's downtown area by writing "black power" across it;

Ripped a large dictionary apart;

Pulled drawers from office cabinets and desks and scattered their contents about;

Tore interoffice and official papers and strewed them on the floor and rug;

Overtured furniture and scratched initials on paneled wall.

Advice to a Young Man Starting a New Career — Kindergarten

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Advice to a young man just starting Kindergarten:

Knuckle away those tears, Johnny. It's time you set about the task of becoming a man.

But no one can blame you for crying, son.

It's hard to leave Eden forever, and that's what they are making you do.

Going to kindergarten is the most momentous step in a young fellow's career. The golden, carefree hours are past. The die is cast. It is sink or swim for you now for the rest of your days.

No wonder you feel bewildered, forlorn and old—older than you'll feel again for a long, long time. Nothing ages a human being faster than a sudden heavy burden of responsibility.

All the others in the house except you are secretly amused, aren't they? They think they remember what childhood is like, but they don't. They don't know that the unknown pitfalls of kindergarten strike almost as huge a terror in your small heart as does the fear of death—the big kindergarten remaining for them—in their hearts.

But courage, lad, courage. It's wise to be a bit cautious of the strange and new. Smart angels hang back where fools rush in to tread.

Right now you're king of the hill, probably, in your own household. Now, at the age of five or six, you'll find a different situation in kindergarten.

There you'll meet a lot of other young kings and queens, or at least crown princes and crown princesses. You'll have to learn to share the peak with them.

Learning to share with others will now become the biggest problem in your life, a problem you'll be trying to solve as long as you live.

Kindergarten is ruled, more or less firmly, by an awesome lady known as the teacher. Whether she is a kind Good Fairy or a Mean Old Witch depends to a large extent on you.

If you make her feel that nothing she does helps you, she will think of herself as a Mean Old Witch and you as a Fresh Kid or a Spoiled Brat. But if you convince her that she is prettier than Elizabeth Taylor and smarter than Margaret Mead, she will tell everybody that you are a Wonderful Child, almost Too Good to be True.

As a reward, she may even let you dust off the blackboard erasers.

Yep, kid, you can't learn too young the Art of Butting Up Persons of Importance. In later years, you will find that, in addition to letting you do their work for them, they will sometimes pay you Cash.

There are so many new things to learn in kindergarten, such as numerals and how to draw animals with four legs. Better concentrate on the numerals. A guy who doesn't learn them will grow up to be the kind of guy who is cheated by restaurant waiters and grocery clerks and second-hand-car salesmen.

Even more important is reading. The letters of the alphabet are magic because they make words, and words—along with deeds—win or lose the world. Books are even better than friends, because books never die and leave you. Books will make you feel good and keep you out of trouble. Nobody ever robbed a bank while reading a good book.

One more thing, Johnny. One of the big things a young man must learn in kindergarten is How to Get Along with Women.

Some of the little girls in your class may want to put their arms around you and hug and kiss you. Don't slug them in the nose—that is unmanly as well as uncouth.

Submit to them with as good grace as you can muster. If there is a pretty, red-haired girl among them, Johnny, you might even kiss her back. And she is the one you will never forget. No, never, never, never, never.

Tears all dry, Johnny? Okay, boy, let's go. So long, Eden—Hello, kindergarten. There's always room in the world for one more good man.

Tonight May See End to Heavy Rains

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The rains are expected to end in Arkansas tonight after heavy rains in Central Arkansas Thursday that left rivers swollen and some low-lying areas flooded.

A low pressure system that brought on the rain was expected to move into Tennessee today, causing most of the showers and rain to end in West and Southwest Arkansas this morning and in East Arkansas by tonight.

Most of all Arkansas received rainfall during the 24-hour period ending at 7 a.m. today, but the largest amounts fell in North Central and Central Arkansas.

Benton, Conway, Crystal Valley, Little Rock and Batesville reported more than four inches of rain and Center Ridge and Greenbrier received more than three inches.

Unofficial reports of more than five inches were received from areas near Benton and at the lock and dam near Conway.

High temperatures Thursday ranged from 67 at Harrison to 82 at Blytheville. Overnight lows ranged from 57 at Gilbert to 72 at Texarkana.

Miniskirts Are There to Stay

HAVERHILL, Mass. (AP)—Principal Felix W. Andrus of Haverhill High School gave ground grudgingly as miniskirted girls darted through his corridors. "The miniskirt is here to stay—we can't battle the manufacturers," he said Wednesday. "We've got to be realistic about this. This is the style and most dresses are being sold this way."

Andrus said the school banned miniskirts last year "because they weren't so common so we considered them an extreme style."

"But now they will have to be accepted," he said. Girls will still be sent home if skirts are higher than one inch above the knee, he said.

Ex-Smoker Heads Cancer Organization

WASHINGTON (AP)—The director of the National Cancer Institute has been off cigarettes for 23 days. And he admits woe-fu-ly, "I miss them very much." But Dr. Kenneth M. Endicott adds: "I'm really glad that I stopped."

After smoking for 30 years—slightly more than a pack a day at the end—the cancer expert finally quit because "I was simply in an impossible position." Endicott was getting it from all sides.

At national symposiums and conferences on smoking and health, "people were just astonished that I smoked." Many got a big charge out of it.

Nor was the assistant surgeon general free from harassment at home.

His teen-age son and daughter, neither of whom smoke, "were carrying on a propaganda campaign" to get him to quit.

For smokers who go through less than half a pack a day, Endicott says, the health risks aren't much different than for nonsmokers.

Dr. Endicott had wanted to quit for years—and did three times before. But each time he took up pipe or cigars and soon was back to cigarettes. "I decided the best way for me to quit was to stop entirely," he explained in an interview.

It was seven years ago, when he became head of the Cancer Institute, that Endicott "really began to get sensitive" about his smoking.

Then, of course, there was the 1964 report by his boss, the surgeon general, that there is a link between smoking and lung cancer. That wasn't news to Endicott. He and his staff had known of the findings cited in the report for some time.

Recently, Endicott was confronted with another persuasive reason to quit: he developed a rough smoker's cough. At 51, he thought, "time may be running out on me."

MOUNTAIN OUT OF MOLEHILL

Dear Helen: My husband and I are reasonable people. When problems come up with others, we are quick to assume responsibility and work toward a solution.

But this one neighbor family has us going. The wife waters her lawn in one spot for hours. Their yard is higher than our area, which is bothered with moles. Naturally when their lawn is flooded, the water seeks the mole tunnels and pours over into our flower bed, making it a swamp. If she'd water normally, this wouldn't happen.

That isn't the worst. We're on septic tanks. They waste so much water, their overflows and comes into our lawn. My husband has to wear boots when he goes out in back, and mowing is almost impossible. Besides the stench is terrific, not to speak of the flies. The network of tunnels is responsible here, too.

We've tried to discuss the trouble with our neighbors, and have even offered to help correct the septic tank and fill in the mole holes. We get no cooperation at all. The woman hangs up on me when I call.

We don't want enemies, but are we justified in calling the health department about the septic tank, and notifying the water department about water-wasters?—GETTING IMPATIENT

Dear G.I.: Yes! This is one time when it's necessary to make a mountain out of a molehill!—H

Dear Helen: I am in my 30's and could go for a woman I met at a dance. She comes in every Saturday night with two or three other women. They dance a lot, but she never pairs off. She told me she was happily married to a soldier when I asked her for a date.

I can't figure her out, and wonder if I should try harder, as maybe she is just playing hard to get.

If she didn't want a replacement for her soldier in Vietnam, why would she come to dances?—JACK.

Dear Jack: Maybe she likes to DANCE.—H

Wins Talent Division of Contest

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—A confident soprano singing "I have confidence" and an unsure statesque beauty swept to victory in the second round of the Miss America Pageant.

"Nervous? Not at all. I like performing," said Miss Rhode Island, Marilyn Cocozza, after she won the talent division Thursday night with her singing and her own piano accompaniment.

Miss Kansas, Debra Barnes, a 5-foot-9 brunette who measures 36-24-36, said following her victory in the swimsuit competition:

"I never considered myself to look good in bathing suits. I thought talent was my strongest point." She failed to win the talent division in the first round Wednesday with her piano performance.

The two winners, both music majors, plan to be college teachers.

The pretty 19-year-old Marilyn has been studying piano for nine years but only began voice lessons eight months ago. "I really don't know why I just started, I guess it was just time."

Debra from the wheat belt, said she was "shocked" at winning the swimsuit division. "I just feel tense in a bathing suit," she said. "I guess I won't be as tense now."

A junior at Kansas State College in her hometown of Pittsburg, Debra also plays the trumpet, french horn and organ.

Writer Sues for More Royalty

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Jess
Oppenheimer, writer-producer of the "I Love Lucy" television show, filed suit Wednesday for an additional $500,000 in royalties.

Oppenheimer contended in Superior Court that, under a 1954 agreement, he was entitled to receive royalties for any future use of 153 episodes he wrote and produced for the series.

The suit said a new program,
"The Lucy Show," also starring actress Lucille Ball, is based on some of Oppenheimer's original creations.
Defendants include Desilu
Productions, Inc.; Columbia
Broadcasting System, Inc., and Paramount Pictures Corp.

Q-Why is Schubert's Symphony No. 8 in B Minor called his "Unfinished Symphony"?
A-Because it has just two, instead of the usual three or four movements of the classical symphony.
Q-Why did Oliver Wendell Holmes write "Old Ironsides"?
A-He wrote the stirring poem after he heard that the famous ship Constitution was to be destroyed by the government. It caused so many protests against destroying the ship that the ship was saved.

Here Are the 1967 Bobcats, Figured to Finish Near Top

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star SportsWriter

Well, here they are! The 1967 edition of the Hope Bobcats, predicted to finish in the upper half of 4AA. Here each player is listed, with individual quoted remarks from Head Coach Freddie Glaze.

SENIORS

Buzz Andrews - Our third-year starter at quarterback, Buzz stands 6 feet, weighing 160 pounds. "A very capable quarterback, he has that burning desire to show his ability."

Ralph Bennett - A 'B' teamer last year, Ralph now is 6'2" and he scales 250 pounds. "Big and tough in a hole, he should develop into a good back-up tackle on the first defensive unit."

David Fincher - Outstanding lineman for two years, David now is six feet tall and weighs 195. "A steady performer and a very good student, David has a good opportunity to make the best guard 4AA has seen in several years."

Billy Gibson - The smallest front-running lineman on the Bobcats, Billy is 5'9" and weighs 160. "Quick. A 220 sprinter last spring, he should use his ability well when pulling on wide plays."

Gary Golden - A solid tackle at 6'1" and 200, Gary also will play defense. "If desire means anything at all, he can make up for his few weaknesses very easily."

Jerry Hartfield - A two-year letterman in the backfield, Jerry stands 5'11" and 165. "Comer. Has developed speed as a hurdler, and can be a fine tailback."

John Henley - Converted from end to center, John has the size (6'2", 196) to be a real boss. "A sincere and dedicated athlete. Playing center, he has the whole offense built around him."

Terry Huffman - A third-year tackle, Terry is big enough at 6'1" and 185 to play his best at any time. "A real battler. He knows his weak points and is working hard to eliminate them."

Donnie Middlebrooks - Another good-sized lineman at 6 feet and 160, Donnie will primarily be a tackle. "A newcomer. Coming from basketball, must make the transition to a new sport. He has the confidence of the coaches."

Mike Murphy - A solid player with good size (5'11", 150) and speed, he is a returning starter. "A versatile boy. He will be used in the defensive secondary and offensive split end."

Joe McMurrough - A good defensive halfback although small at 5'5" and 145, Joe will be a starter. "Tough. The toughest player for his size that I have ever coached."

Wayne Norvell - One of our real leaders, Wayne is built strong, standing only 5'7" but a toughie at 165 pounds. "He has desire. New to football, he has dedicated himself to playing as a senior."

Alan Phillips - A starter at defensive safety, Alan is fairly small at 5'8" and 150, but is slick as greased lightning. "He has a big job replacing Stan Parris' ability to intercept at will."

Ronnie Porter - Small but experienced, Ronnie is listed at guard and at 5'9" plays at 140 pounds. "Small, but he has the desire to learn and to play."

Mike Russell - A second-year man in the line, Mike has the size (5'8", 196) to move people around. "Showing quickly his progress he can be the answer to a prayer for depth at tackle."

Jerry Sanders - Mean on the field as a two-way performer, Jerry is 5'11" and weighs 160. "Transfer from Nashville, Jerry has been shifted from fullback to end. His 'sticky' hands should be an asset to the passing game."

Jerry Still - A possible starter at defensive halfback at 5'9" and 150, Jerry has proven he likes to play. "Guts. He is small, but has the intestinal fortitude to hit as hard as the big ones."

Jack Dougan - A newcomer at the center position, Jack will play at six feet and 150 pounds. "Made his mind up he wants to play center."

Herbert Townsend - Carrying good size into the guard position at 5'9" and 170, Herbert wants to play. "Another newcomer. If work makes the difference, he will improve."

Randy O'Steen - A halfback with a load of desire, Randy, at 5'8" and 140, wants to play football. "His first year, doesn't mind passing a lick."

Otis Duffy - Though small (5'6", 140) Otis will play some football. "A transfer from Yenger, has shown promise but has also been injured."

Larry East - Shifty and quick, Larry stands 5'11" and weighs 150. "Making the transition from basketball, has shown good promise as an end and punt returner with good speed and hands."

Mickey Allen - This second-year man has the fullback spot filled for two years, playing at 5'8" and 180. "A very promising fullback-linebacker. Got the experience he needed to make the grade as a sophomore."

Carroll Beck - Big and stout at 6'4" and 210 pounds, Carroll is a dedicated tackle. "Size and speed. Will have many colleges after him."

David Jones - David centered on the specialty teams last year, and is even better this year at 6'1" and 170. "Very adequate center. Will play more defense than he ever has before."

Rodney Jones - A jolting tackler in his second season at nose guard, Rodney is big enough (6'0", 170) to move people around. "Likes it tough, but also will play end because of his pass-receiving ability."

Kenny Koen - Our foes had better watch out for Kenny, who at 5'9" and 160 is a "diamond in the rough". "Very promising halfback, has made lots of headway after back injury as a soph."

Larry Massanelli - As a sophomore Larry gained size (5'8", 140) and experience on the "B" team. "Best back-up quarterback in 4AA."

Jerry McWilliams - Our 'Light Horse Jerry' at wingback, he is built low at 5'8" but solid at 160 pounds. "Let people know his name late as a sophomore."

James Rowe - A fine back-up noseman at 5'7" carrying 140 pounds, James will play a lot of football. "Small, quick, likes to hit."

Jim Singleton - A fine end at 6'5" and 165, Jimmy will see plenty of action. "He has the height, will improve as he fills out."

Don Buffington - Built (5'10", 165) for the backfield, Don probably will play at several different positions. "First year. Strong - wants to play."

HOPE (ARK) STAR, Printed by Offset

Jim Alford - A 'blue-chipper' at linebacker, Jim will play at 5'10" and 170 pounds. "Initiated early as soph. Great potential."

Ronny Brown - Solid defensive performer at 5'0" and 165, Ronny came to play. "Good kicker, also a fine linebacker."

Clay Lehman - Another good-sized soph at 6'0" and 170, Clay is being groomed at center. "His attitude and desire makes a fine football player out of himself."

Ronnie Lewis - Rough and tough at 5'11" and 165 pounds, Ronnie loves action. "One of our strongest men. Potential of a good fullback."

Larry Williams - A real head-knocker on defense, the younger brother of Jerry is all of 5'11" and 170 pounds. "Doesn't mind hitting. Good opportunity to play as a soph."

David Still - Younger brother of halfback Jerry, David is the bigger (6'0", 168) of the two and also a fine end. "Good punter. With work will make a real football player."

John Spraggins - Showing 10.7 speed as a freshman, John had a momentous junior high career. He stands 6'1" and scales 165 pounds. "Height, speed, and size make him in line as a fine 4AA quarterback. Also plays defensive."

Phil Watkins - Another hefty soph at 6'2" and 170, Phil will be an end. "Height, and size will make him a good end in high school."

Gary Hollis - Good size (6'1", 160) and speed will work in Gary's favor at halfback. "Sophomore sprinter who, when he finds himself, could be a strong runner."

Mike McQueen - Plagued by injuries, Mike has had his problems, but at six feet and 180 pounds has a bright future. "Doesn't mind working when hurt. Will make a good tackle."

Paul Pierce - Built solid at 5'9" and 170, Paul will play tackle. "Developing physically, has good potential."

David Rook - Another sophomore lineman playing at 5'9" and 173 pounds, David is a transfer from Tucson, Arizona. "Has to make change to new school here."

David Rowe - Out with a broken arm, David will not play this year. "Our smallest Bobcat, but he will be there when it's all over."

Randy Still - A halfback with good hands, Randy is a hitter though light (5'5", 135). "A stickler. Small, but stick-ability to grow into a fine athlete." There they are. Take 'em or leave 'em. The 1967 Hope Bobcats.

Wolves to Depend on Backfield

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star SportsWriter

Head Coach Pete Prewitt will have his Prescott Curley Wolves ready for the 1967 season, even though he has lost many fine athletes from last year's team.

The Curley Wolves will have to depend on solid performances from Van Culpepper, a 155 pound halfback; Mike Koger, a 150-pound junior halfback, and Ronnie White, a fine senior at end. But any success for Prescott will probably be determined from the strength of the line.

From tackle to tackle, the situation looks bleak, both in size and experience. Prescott should not put forth much of a challenge in District 7A, and it seems unlikely that they can reach .500 in '67.

The Sportsman's Creed

The Player

1. He lives clean and plays hard. He plays for the love of the game.
2. He wins without boasting, he loses without excuses, and he never quits.
3. He respects officials and accepts their decision without question.
4. He never forgets he represents his school.

The Coach

1. He inspires in his boys a love for the game and the desire to win.
2. He teaches them that it is better to lose fairly than to win unfairly.
3. He leads players and spectators to respect officials by setting them a good example.
4. He is the type of man he wants his boys to be.

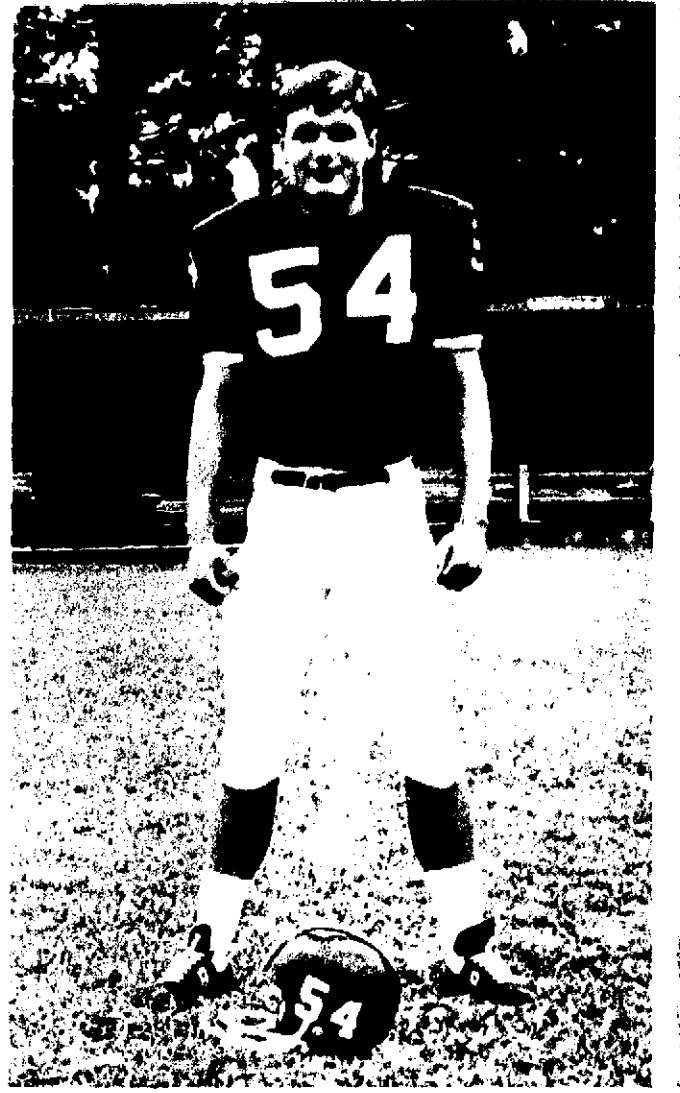

The Official

1. He knows the rules.
2. He is fair and firm in decisions. He calls them as he sees them.
3. He treats players and coaches courteously and demands the same treatment for himself.
4. He knows the game is for the boys, and lets them have the spotlight.

The Spectator

1. He never boos a player or official.
2. He appreciates a good play, no matter who makes it.
3. He knows the school gets the blame or the praise for his conduct.
4. He recognizes the need for more sportsmen and fewer "sports."

Romney Has No Other Support

WASHINGTON (AP) — Michigan Gov. George Romney's charge that he was brainwashed on Vietnam war policy during a 1966 visit to Saigon has drawn no support from nine other governors who accompanied him. Most of the Democratic governors who made the trip with Romney, a likely candidate for the Republican presidential nomination next year, rapped his assessment of briefings given the touring politicians by military and diplomatic officials. The Republican governors were more charitable, saying Romney may have received information they didn't. But none agreed they were exposed to attempted brainwashing. The controversy started by Romney's comment — made Monday as the governor was explaining his shift of stance on Vietnam policy — was front page news in Saigon's English-language newspapers. It all started when a television interviewer asked Romney what had changed his earlier view that U.S. involvement in Vietnam was morally right and necessary. "When I got back from Vietnam," replied Romney, "I just had the greatest brainwashing that anybody can get when you go over to Vietnam. Not only by the generals but also by the diplomatic corps over there, and they did a very thorough job." Democratic Gov. Philip H. Hoff of Vermont, one of those who traveled with Romney, said of the charge: "Who the hell is he to say it was brainwashing? Either he's a most naive man or he lacks judgment." Another Democrat, Gov. Harold E. Hughes of Iowa, said he saw "absolutely no evidence" of attempts to influence the governors' viewpoints. Rhode Island Gov. John Chafee, considered a GOP vice presidential hopeful in 1968, said he didn't feel he was brainwashed, but added: "I don't want to disagree with what someone else felt." Republican Gov. Tim Babcock of Montana called the briefings "realistic" while Democratic Gov. John Burns of Hawaii said he could "find no justification for Gov. Romney's statement." The composer, Joseph Haydn, was familiarly known as "Papa."

Old Bobcat Is Coach at Arkadelphia

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sportswriter

Entering his second year as head coach, Winston Duke has many problems to take care of before his Arkadelphia Badgers can become a contender. Only six lettermen return from a 2-9 squad of '66, and none of these were starters. Still, good speed and possibly a better than adequate defense could bring a few victories to Badger town. The team will suffer from inexperience, lack of size, and limited depth. These are too many short-comings for a coach to work out in one season. Even though last year's starters were all seniors, Coach Duke will have some standouts from junior high teams of the past. Mark Estes, whose strong point is defensive halfback, enters his senior year carrying 170 pounds. The Badgers offense could be sparked by Tommy Leath, a fast though light (135) breakaway threat as a junior high. Backing up the line will be Kinney Couch, a 160-pounder two year letterman. Don't expect the Arkadelphia Badgers to finish out of the cellar of District 4-AA in 1967.

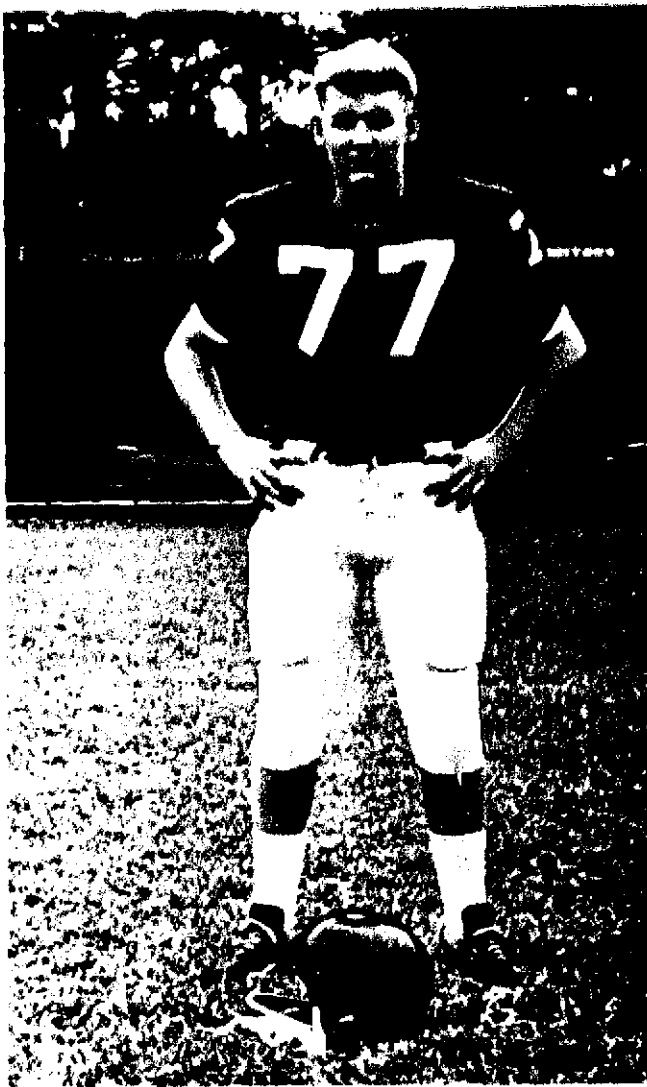

Britain Ready to Negotiate

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
ADEN (AP) — Britain is ready to negotiate immediately with Arab nationalist groups to find a replacement for the federal government which has lost control, the high commissioner in this British protectorate said Tuesday. The announcement by Sir Humphrey Trevelyan followed the takeover of key towns and road networks by the National Liberation Front. The NLF now claims control of two-thirds of the federation of Aden and 16 sheikdoms and sultanates along the southern coast of the Arabian peninsula. Its rival for control of Aden upon the scheduled British departure next January is FLOSY, the Front for the Liberation of South Yemen.

10 Hurt in Korean Wreck

SEOUL (AP) — Ten persons were injured Tuesday night in the derailment of a passenger train on the central front. Although North Korean guerrilla attacks have been frequent since last October, it was the first railroad sabotage since the Korean War. The train, bound for Yonchon, just south of the armistice line, was derailed and overturned by TNT which had been planted under the rails 35 miles northeast of Seoul, railroad officials reported.

District 4-AA Has Balance

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sportswriter

The best way to describe District 4-AA for 1967 is by using a word that has been used more and more the last few years: balance.

Will Malvern's Panthers and their solid defense will as predicted? Many people think so. David Alpe is loaded with just about every phase of the game, and the Leopards look very, very hard to beat on paper.

Can Crossett's Panthers get them and winning track through for Coach Don Piers? What a coaching job! Piers, because the Eagles have experienced seniors, who every championship ball club must have. With the most experienced squad in 4-AA, how about those Warren Lumberjacks? Head coach Jamie Raper also has a strong backfield on hand, as does Smackover.

Did you say Smackover? What a backfield! Mike Holloway and Co. make my back shiver just to think about them. And every district must have a dark horse, so 4-AA has one. The Magnolia Panthers, who have been pushed aside literally by most pigskin prognosticators, can't slip past my pen and pad. Hard to believe, but Magnolia could easily win that title trophy.

The Fairview Cardinals? Those bloody rivals from the south side of Camden need no introduction. They play their best game against everybody. And coach George Branch also has a fine backfield. And with a new coach with a reputation for winning, the Camden Panthers will challenge with a tough schedule in '67. Arkadelphia seems most unlikely to succeed, but they are overdue for a contender and Coach Winston Duke's Badgers are mostly unknown.

If you look closer, you will see that one team has been left out. That, my friends, is your assignment to support in 1967, the Hope Bobcats. There it is, in black-and-white. In 4-AA, the only group of persons who have a firm hold on their position are the Cheer Leaders and Fans.

Texarkana Strong as Usual

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sportswriter

Competing in the Class AAA-West Division, this year the Texarkana Razorbacks could pose quite a threat to the favorites, Fayetteville and Springdale.

Led by halfback Mike Saint, the Hogs' offense should roll very effectively. Big and strong, Saint can tear through the middle of the line, and he has speed to turn the corner, too. Running with 190-pounder Mike Timlin at the halfback slots, the Razorbacks will have a powerful ground game.

Coach Lynn Nix only has thirteen returning lettermen, though, so depth will be a major problem. If Randy Hickerson can come through as a passing quarterback, the defense should not have to be very stingy. But defense is the Razorbacks' weak point.

With inexperience and below average weight plaguing the line, the depth problem could show here. But if the hoeses do the job they're supposed to do, and the inexperienced come up with good years, a good winning spirit should bring a few victories to Razorback land. But don't expect Texarkana to duplicate their 9-3 season mark of last year.

Camden Could Pull Surprises

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sportswriter

With a new coach and a winning experience, the Camden Panthers could pull off many victories, but anything goes in a tough 4-AA.

Head coach George Burke has a head job at Norphlet, coming to Camden. Last year Norphlet had a 10-0 record. Burke. He could be a blessing in disguise for Camden, who needs a top-flight head man badly.

Then there is the team itself. The line will be spearheaded by Bobby Shankle (195), who is a sure tackler. The rest of the line is large and stout, and conditioning could solve these problems. The Panthers have two fine backs in Mike Reynolds (185), a fine quarterback who is also a star basketballer, and L. E. Lindsey, a junior who at 155 is as tough as the rest.

Depth could be a nagging problem, but forget about that, the new coach must first get the respect of his players. If Camden likes George Burke, and if George Burke likes Camden, a satisfactory season will come.

Austin in 2nd Year at Hope

By RALPH ROUNTON

He graduated from Horatio High School where he won letters in several sports. He finished his education at Henderson and Arkansas State Teachers College and lettered in football, basketball, and track.

Beginning his second season on the Hope High staff is Coach Joe Austin.

Coach Austin moved here a year ago to take over the duties of Head Senior Basketball Coach, replacing Bill Mitchell, who coached in Hope for many years. Before taking the Hope job he coached at Lockesburg, a basketball town, and had many out-

Stamps to Go After Title Again

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sportswriter

In District 8B this season a hot battle for the title should be at stake between Stamps and defending champ Norphlet.

Experience, speed, and a good defense are Stamps pluses for 1967, with 11 returning lettermen around for Coach Vernon Hutchins. These factors could easily be enough for the 8B title. Mike Fields, state Class B champ in the 120 yard high hurdles, back Lew Gentry, and campus leader Bill Fore at quarterback could merit All-State rankings.

Norphlet's fine winning tradition and some fine returnees off that unbeaten team of last season could thwart Stamps attempt to wrest away the title trophy. Bearden coach Russell Cerrato's Bears seem to be without championship material this time around, and a .500 season appears to be out of reach for the Bruins.

Strong, Hampton, and Bradley return few lettermen and should be small and inexperienced. But the Stamps Yellowjackets say, "This is our year."

DeQueen Is Always a Contender

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sportswriter

Things should be a little tighter than usual, but expect DeQueen to come out on top in District 7A. But don't count out Nashville and Gurdon.

The DeQueen Leopards should move back into title territory this year, led by a strong offensive line. Bobby Trammell, a 200-pound tackle, should clear out many holes this year. Lovell Tollett, along with Trammell, will back up the defense. A good run-

Magnolia Figured About Same

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sportswriter

No change has come drifting in from the Magnolia Panther camp, merely "about the same as last year", when coach Joe Thomasson's ranks finished 5-6 overall.

Twelve lettermen back, twelve gone, nine starters back, 13 gone. Not much cause to worry, but don't give up completely. With a strong crop of juniors, all is not yet lost.

The line should be tough. Chuck Linkin (200) at one tackle, Larry McLeod (215) at the other, and who needs guards and centers. Losing players at those positions with names like James Antoon and Bernice Cogar, replacements should not be too hard to find.

Mike Waters (165) will probably start at quarterback, and should be better than adequate. Randy Fitzhugh is a fine safety who, if he could make the switch, could help the Panthers at halfback.

This team is a real sleeper, but with fine coaching from Joe Thomasson, who knows?

ning attack should bring the title trophy to DeQueen.

Leading running quarterback James Turley, the Nashville Scorpions should win many ball games. If the line, on the heavy side, can clear the holes, expect some breakaway runs from Turley. The defense should be tough and stingy.

Gurdon's Go-Devils should be better than their 3-7 record last year, but not title timber for another year anyway. With lack of size and inexperience, the Go-Devils could pull some upsets with a good passing game.

Ashtown, Prescott, and Mena return few lettermen of any renown, and shouldn't pose much problem. The winning tradition at Ashtown could give them a chance, as they are defending champs. Prescott and Mena should finish below .500 in the final standings.

Smackover Has Backs, Line Weak

BY RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sportswriter

The Smackover Buckaroos should have one of the finest backfields in 4-AA this season, but depth in the line will be critical.

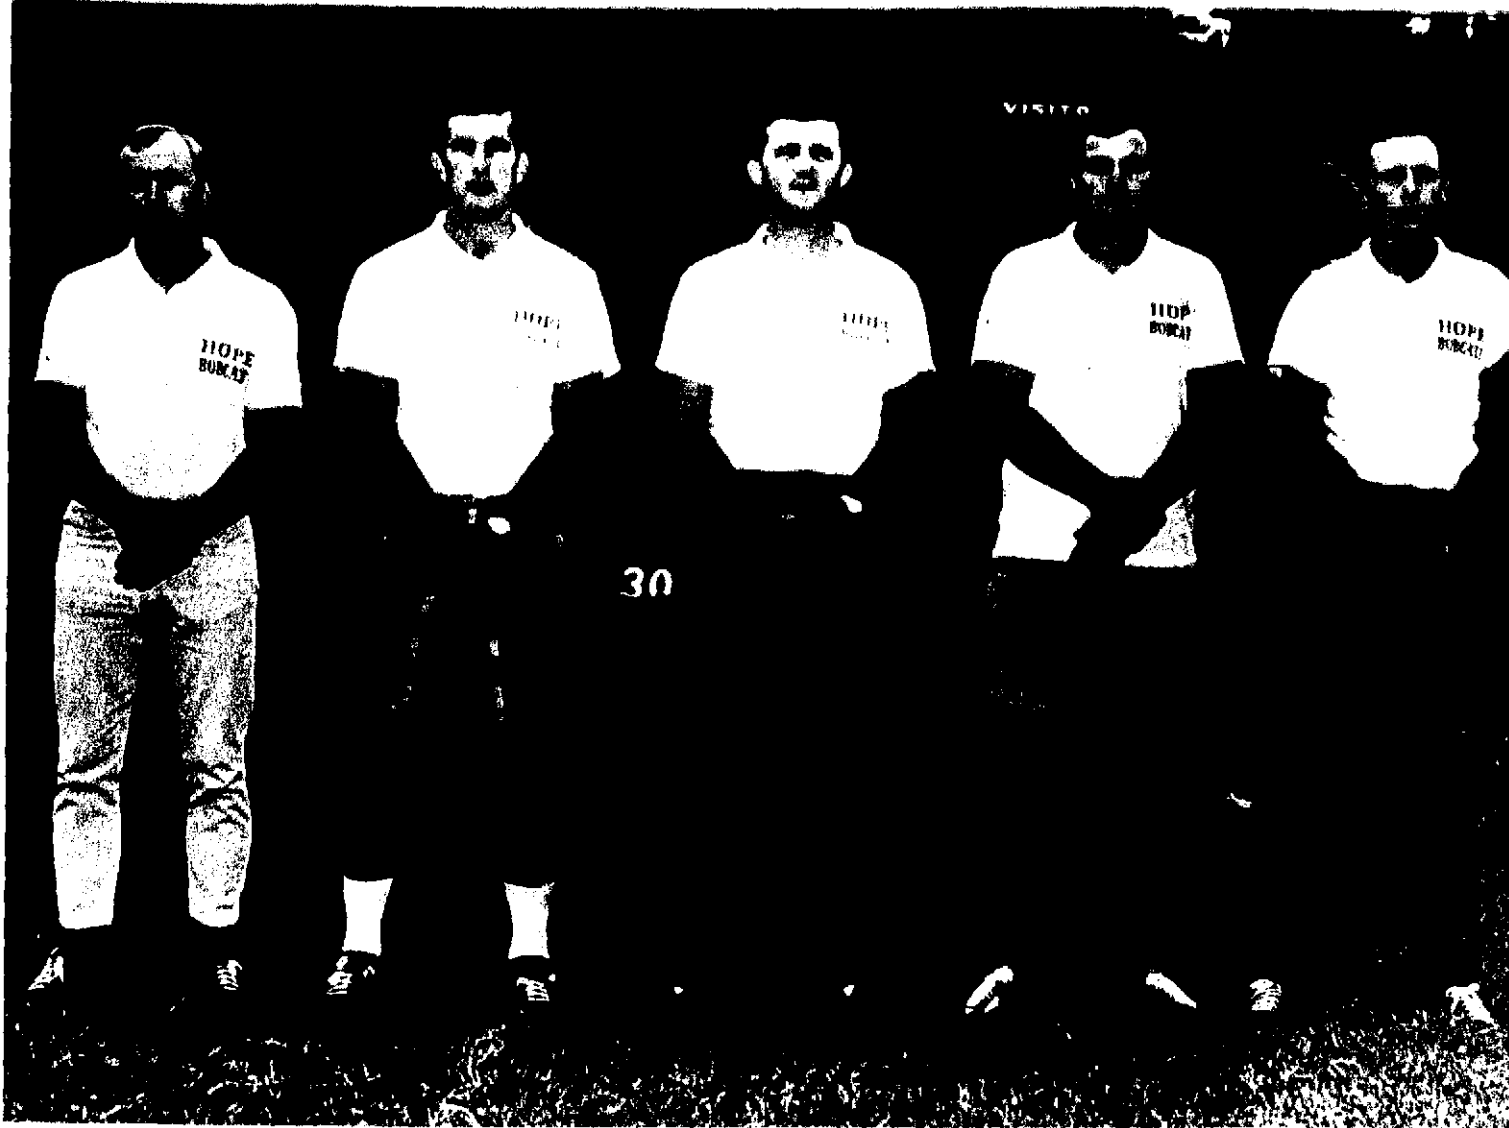

Outstanding performances without replacement or relief will have to be expected, with only eleven returning lettermen.

Head Coach James Lemley has a supreme All-State candidate in Mike Holloway, a fine passing quarterback if there ever was one. His ability to run and scramble out of the pocket makes him slick as axle grease and fast as lightning when he finds some room to open up.

Rounding out the backfield are Dennis Biggers (155), Barry Butler (140), and Martin Phillips (145). A pass receiver must be found to replace track star Del Basinger, one of the finest millers in the state last year. When Del got open last year, he was gone. He will be a fine college athlete someday.

A tough line will have to be full of stamina, as there are no bigshots to back them up. But with eight starters back this year, the Battlin' Bucks of Smackover could pull some big upsets.

Scrappers Usually Do Just That

BY RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sportswriter

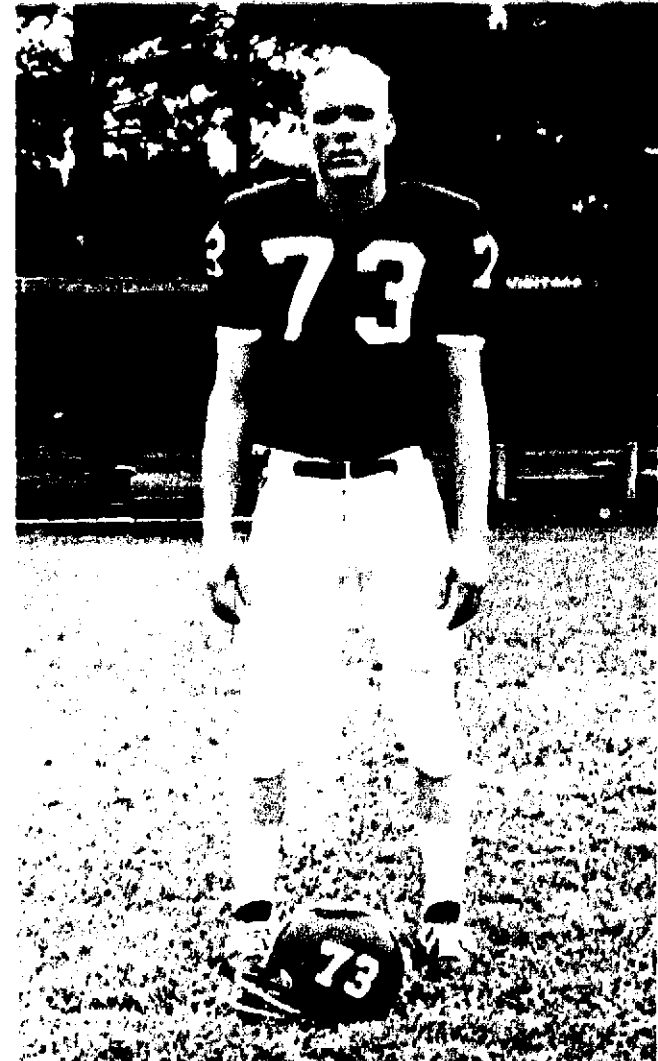

If there is anything opponents of the Nashville Scrappers recall, it is their supreme ability to scrap.

The reputation and name for Nashville's football teams, which mostly have been coached by Dwight Jones, is unlike anything around. They are not known for playing 'dirty', just scrapping and fighting until that final buzzer. This year should be no exception.

A star on the horizon is quick and slick James Turley (150), who at quarterback and on kick returns is a breakaway threat such as Nashville has not known for several seasons. And he is of small renown, since he had to play behind passer Randy Peek in 1966. And he could carry the running load, since Jerry Sanders, a fine fullback last year, has moved to Hope and will play for the Bobcats this year.

The line is an indefinite problem, but if a few come through as expected it should be another fine year for Scrapper fans.

NFL: -New York Giants

GENERAL COMMENT—After worst season in history, Giants can't go anywhere but up, as Alie Sherman would surely say. How far up depends entirely on defense. It looks as bad as it did a year ago. But the attack certainly got an injection of excitement with trades.

OFFENSE

PASSING—Francis Tarkenton will be exhilarating—and controversial. He says he doesn't scramble intentionally, but somehow there's always someone clutching at his jersey. Earl Morrall is steady back-up. Rating—B+.

RECEIVING—Revivified Del Shofner means a lot. This could be strongest part of club. Sherman has several possible combinations, featuring Aaron Thomas, Homer Jones, Joe Morrison, Bobby Crespin—and, of course, Shofner. Jones is the super home run threat. Morrison provides versatility. Rating—B+.

RUNNING—Got their fingers crossed on Tucker Frederickson's knee. If it holds up so Tucker can run anywhere like he did couple of years ago, Giants will move the ball because they've got a good halfback to team with him in Bill Triplett. Otherwise, they go back to Chuck Mercein, plodder type. Rating—B.

LINE—Not bad, if they get anything out of their tackles. Center Greg

Hornets Figured in District 7B

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sportswriter

With 15 lettermen returning, the Mineral Springs Hornets should win the District 7B title this year, but there will be a big battle for second.

The other six teams in this district all have a possibility of finishing second this season. Foreman, with 16 returning lettermen, seems to be the best bet. Head Coach Clyde C. Dorrrough will be looking for good leadership from Butch Murray, who made the All-District teams in '66, Pat Reed, an end, and Don Jones, a fine center. But the team will hurt from a lack of goodspeed.

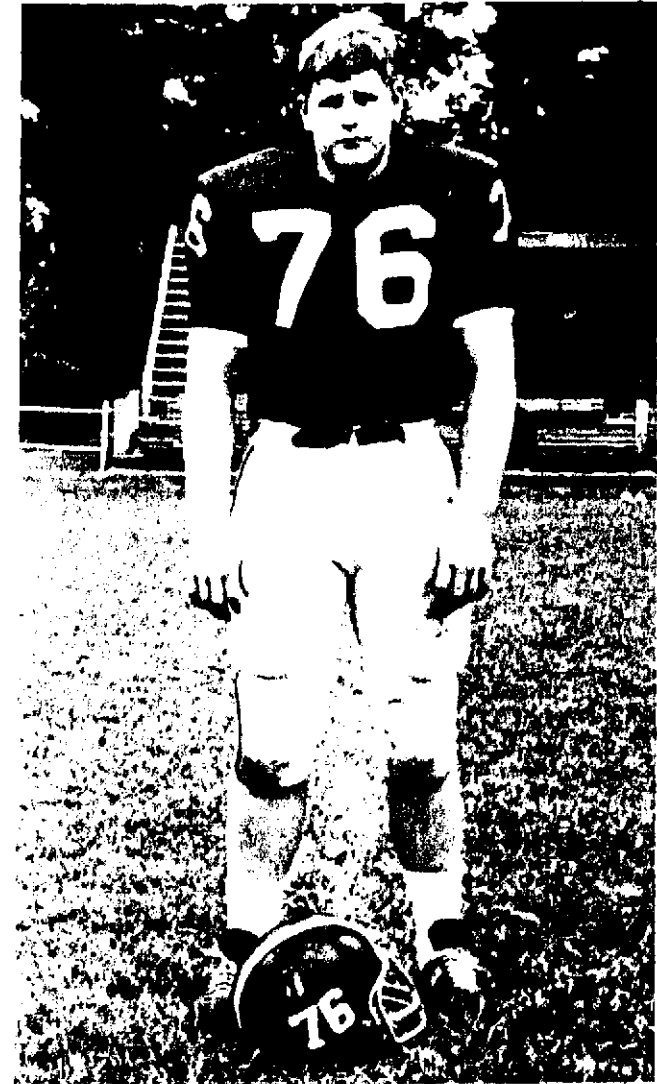

The Horatio Lions return 12 lettermen from last season's 3-3 in conference squad, and could be improved. Coach Don Cain's Lions will be stingy on defense, but the offense will have to score points. All-District fullback Otis Powell, Dale McCoy at end, and guard Pat Adcock should be standouts.

Last years champs, the Dierks Outlaws, were hit hard at graduation and return only nine letter-winners. Small and slow, the Outlaws do not figure in any way to repeat last year's mark. Murfreesboro coach Melvin Brown does not expect a championship, but should have a A-plus line. Lewisville and Fouke are low on depth and size, but could pull off some upsets. But look for Mineral Springs to wind up on top in District 7B.

Warren Can't Be Counted Out Yet

BY RALPH ROUNTON
Star SportsWriter

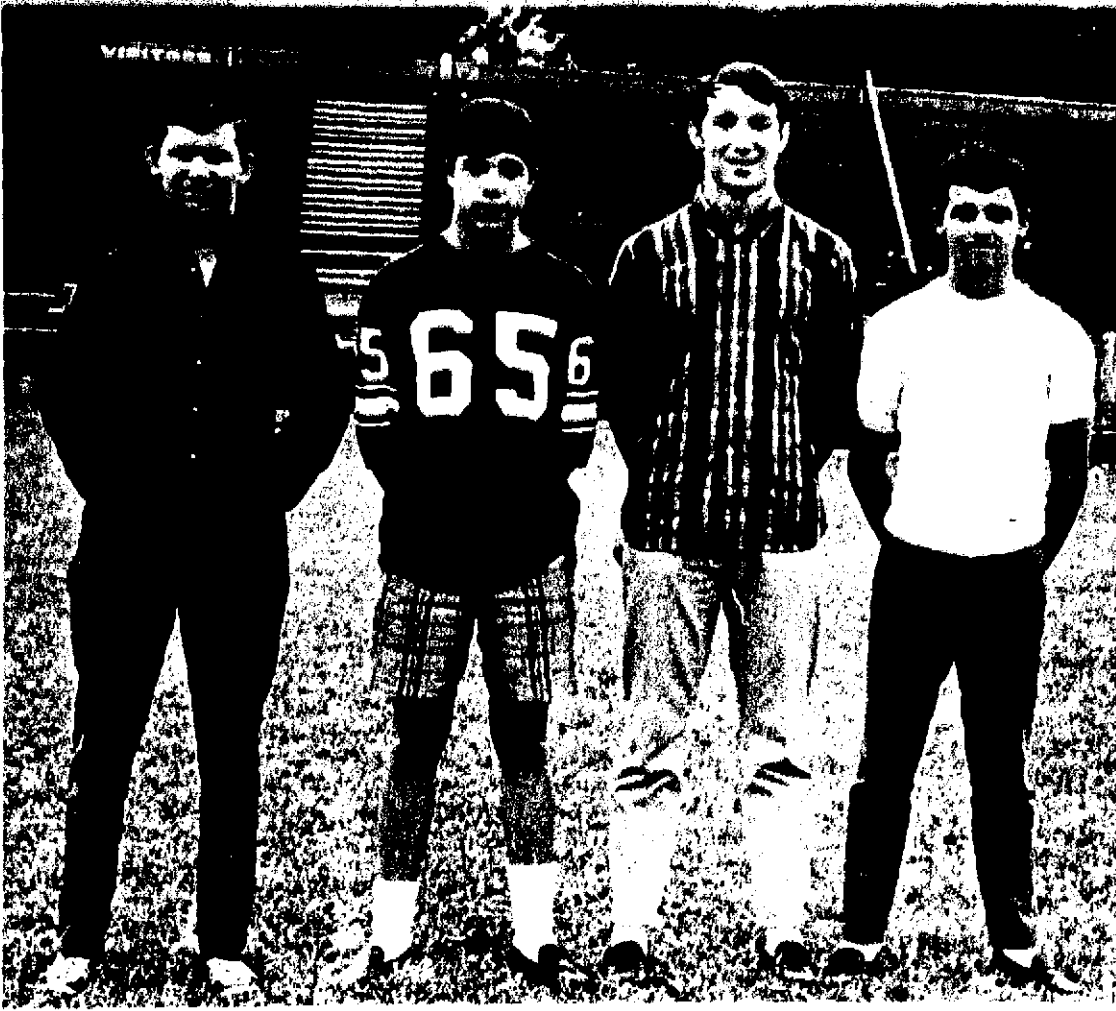

If anyone has been overlooked by the pigskin prognosticators, it has got to be the Warren Lumberjacks.

Nineteen lettermen return, the largest total in 4-AA, and five were starters in '66. Head coach Jamie Raper has Robert Dew, 175 at quarterback and a fine runner and passer, to lead a 'lumbering' offense. And they have a fine workhorse in Leigh Hargis, who compares to a Warren blockbuster of the past, a fellow named David McMurry, who gave coaches more nightmares than ulcers. How about that!

Coach Raper does need two fine tackles in a hurry, though. Otherwise the line looks to be as rough as any around. And the 'Jacks have one thing not many teams have. That could only be a winning tradition that dates far back into the last decade.

Warren looks good on paper, but how about on the field under all the pressures? Only time will tell.

NFL: -St. Louis Cardinals

GENERAL COMMENT—Ostensibly suffering from some ailment that's afflicted them in recent years, quarterbackitis. Charley Johnson's Army service left them bare, with only taxi squadder Jim Hart to deal for the Cards. But because it's a veteran squad with a title shot, they might swing a deal yet.

OFFENSE

PASSING—Propaganda campaign has already started that vets have confidence in Hart's ability to carry them. Has shown good poise so far. But he's got to be a big gamble. Rating—C—

RECEIVING—The entrenched wide receivers, Sonny Randle and Bobby Joe Conrad, are hustling as never before. That's because they could wind up picking splinters and watching little Billy Gambrell (practically a regular anyhow) and sensational rookie Dave Williams. No one's going to touch Jackie Smith, though, at tight end. Rating—A—

RUNNING—The key man is Johnny Roland, last year's top rookie, and a solid slasher who'll improve with experience. Any kind of combination is possible with Prentice Gault, Willie Crenshaw, Thunder Thornton and Roy Shivers pushing for playing time. Gault's the steadiest, Shivers the splashiest. Rating—B

LINE—Potential all-leaguers at several spots. Cards claim Ernie McMillan is most effective tackle in NFL. Bob Reynolds not bad, either. Ken Gray, Irv Goode are effective guards. Goode can play center, tackle, too. And Rick Sortun's been playing almost as much as anybody. That leaves Bob DeMarco, another all-pro, as the center anchor. Rating—A—

KICKING—Training sessions uncovered Jim Randall as a punter who can relieve Jackie Smith of his duties. Joe Bakken's among the premier field goal kickers in league.

DEFENSE

LINE—Quick development of Dave Long, a soph, and Bob Rowe, a rookie, has allowed coach Charley Winner to test Don Brumm as a linebacker. Brumm could always move back in at end. Other end, Joe Robb, is a rugged rusher. Chuck Walker, Sam Silas are agile men inside. Rating—B+

LINEBACKERS—Strength may be suspect because Larry Stallings, on right side, went off to Army; Bill Koman, on left, is getting old, and so is Dale Meinert in middle. That's reason for Brumm experiment, though Dave Meggysy was original choice for corner job. Also have ex-Giant Jerry Hillebrand for depth. Rating—B—

SECONDARY—Fire, leadership and sheer ability are provided by free safety Larry Wilson, tops in league. Pat Fischer another fiery all-pro type at cornerback. Jerry Stovall is generally unappreciated as a literally strong safety, while Jimmy Burson suffers from same lack of recognition at corner. Rating—A SUMMARY—If the Cardinals get over the top this year, it'll be on their defense because you just can't make a fast shuffle at quarterback without impeding your attack. Potential trouble lies in their linebacking brigade. Otherwise, it's a strong and deep squad that has been frustrated too long. PREDICTION—Third in Century division.

Malvern May Be the One to Beat

BY RALPH ROUNTON
Star SportsWriter

After finishing a close second to Crossett last year, this time the Malvern Leopards are predicted to take their first Region 4-AA championship in head coach David Alpe's second season.

With that wild, deceiving "bifocal" offense and three of the four starters back for another try, the Leopards should be a high-scoring ball club. And, boy, what a defense.

Royce Pennington (175) tore up the district literally from his tailback slot in the bifocal in his junior season, and this time he could be nominated for All-State honors. The line, well, Coach Alpe need not worry.

With Mike Griffin (200) and Bruce Efrd around to give quarterbacks ulcers, they could easily succeed. Malvern has plenty of studs waiting around for the seniors to graduate, so depth will not be a problem. Speaking of problems and weaknesses, try to find one. It will take a lot of desire to beat the Leopards.

Leopards Always Tough for Bobcats

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star SportsWriter

Being the last intersectional opponent before the Bobcats hit the district season, DeQueen should also be the toughest.

Coach Don Hubbard should have some fine hosses, and the Leopards could easily take the District 7A title this year. Returning 10 lettermen, Hubbard should boast of superior speed and large size, and his defense should be extra-tough.

On offense, fullback Sam Cowling should be the workhorse, a 190-pounder. Heading up the line will be Bobby Trammell (200) at tackle, and Lovell Tollett (170) at guard. This pair should open plenty of good-size holes in '67. With only one-third of the squad being seniors, you can watch out for the Leopards in the next few years.

Don't count on Coach Don Hubbard worrying too much this season, as he has himself a real power.

Fairview Not Strong as Usual

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star SportsWriter

When you get to thinking about it, it's interesting. In junior high, the 4-AA powers for several years have been Camden Fairview and Magnolia, but how long it's been since either has won a senior district title! And for Fairview, this year is not the time.

But with only nine lettermen back from last fall's 7-5 team, the time is now for those sophomores and juniors who whipped up on the others as freshmen. Of the seniors, only backfield positions they take up. The rest, well.

Bubba Wrentz, a quick 155-pounder at quarterback, is a good ball handler. And at halfback there's Eddie Folse (150), who is a fine inside runner. And for that short yardage, no one will be better than Sandy Nutt, a fine 195-pound fullback. One thing, though. Three men don't make a team in coach George Branch's book, or for that matter, my book either.

But the Fairview Cardinals will be in there fighting, because that's the way it winds up every year. But their hopes had better not be set too high.

'Belt-Tightening' Goes for Federals Too, Says Mills

Arkansas Democrat Wilbur D. Mills, chairman of the House Ways & Means Committee, put into words at Little Rock yesterday what most Americans are thinking when he said:

"It's not fair to expect the taxpayer to pull in his belt without the government doing the same thing."

Mills, the news dispatch added, said he didn't know what position the committee would take on the 10 per cent income tax surcharge bill, but that if it does decide the bill is needed he was sure the committee would insist before reporting it out that "definite steps — not promises" — be taken to reduce spending.

But distrust of mismanagement in Washington is so widespread that I doubt whether anything Mr. Mills or other conservatives may tell us will avert national disaster for the Democratic party if the 10 per cent income tax hike actually becomes law.

The public knows for a certainty that no part of a tax increase would go to reduction of the federal debt; on the contrary, the public suspects the increased tax would simply be used by the Government as collateral on which to borrow still more money. The suspicion is justified for a debtor is judged on his record — and this government of ours has been spending more money than it collects in taxes ever since the end of World War II. Our commentary applies to both parties. Most of the administrations have been Democratic, but the largest deficit before the current one was run up by Dwight Eisenhower, a Republican.

A climbing debt means reduced buying power for the dollar. When the situation gets bad enough we call it inflation. A mismanaged Government cheats you out of your life insurance, social security benefits, and other savings — for you put into them expensive dollars that would buy something, but the city slickers in Washington aim to pay you off in cheap dollars that will buy a good deal less.

You feel the iron bite of inflation in every walk of life. It hits this newspaper staff, for whom we have had to make a cost-of-living payroll adjustment this year — on top of other adjustments in the past. It hits the Post Office Department, where a 6 per cent wage adjustment will be upcoming Oct. 1. And not long after that the Government will enact a postage increase law which won't help cure the postal deficit because rising operating costs in the Post Office Department will soak up all the extra income.

What's at the root of this mess? Simply this: Government goes on launching scores of new and experimental programs that have nothing to do with carrying the mail or performing any other useful service; it does so by printing more and more paper dollars so that the buying power of people who actually work for a living is reduced day by day — and yet Government refuses to cut out any part of this nonsense before asking the people to pay a 10 per cent tax hike!

Mr. Wilbur D. Mills' words are right. But can he turn them into action? On that question hangs the answer as to whether today's office-holders are going to be tomorrow's ex-politicians.

Relationship to Get Closer

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Dr. F. Raymond Keating Jr., professor of medicine at the Mayo Graduate School says the doctor-patient relationship may eventually come closer to the kinship between a TV viewer and his TV set.

He outlined a plan Thursday under which patients would be instructed to sit down before a TV screen, which would flash questions and record answers on tape for later study.

The doctor said patients would have a privilege they don't always have now — describing their illness in as great detail as they want.

In studies, Keating said, the idea worked.

Auto Strike Likely to Be a Long One

By KIT KINCADE

DETROIT (AP) — There were several indications today that the United Auto Workers strike may halt Ford auto production for a long time as both sides stood firm.

And while the walkout by some 160,000 members of the auto workers union has halted Ford operations in 25 states, 1968 model cars rolled off assembly lines at General Motors and Chrysler.

No progress has been reported in negotiations that began July 11 at Ford and ended just after midnight Thursday when the strike began.

No new negotiations are planned although a subcommittee meeting is scheduled for Monday to work out a schedule for further bargaining.

On the basic wage offer alone both sides appear miles apart.

Referring to the Big Three proposal of Aug. 29, one top union bargainer said, "We could have gotten that same amount if we simply extended or renewed the present agreement."

The company says it has no immediate plans for making a new offer.

Although the strike may force production cutbacks in such automotive suppliers as the steel and rubber industries, the chance of government intervention appears slight at this point.

The federal government has never invoked the Taft-Hartley Act to halt an auto strike. Ford has only one major defense contract, a $91.4 million one for 42,000 Jeeps from the firm's Highland Park, Mich., plant. A company spokesman said the government does not consider this production critical.

Walter P. Reuther, UAW president, led Ford workers off the job for what he calls "the longest and most ambitious list of demands" the union has yet sought.

Since both Chrysler and General Motors refused union requests to extend current contracts, union members at the two firms are working, reluctantly, without a contract.

If and when a contract is reached at Ford, the union will use it as a pattern for a settlement at the other two companies.

Coleman, a Negro, filed Wednesday afternoon as a candidate for the position held by school board President Lee Parham.

Military Aid to Tiny Nations Covers Some Mighty Strange Things

By EDMOND LEBRETON

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 22 shotguns allocated to Iran under the military assistance program are for riot control, not hunting or clay pigeon shooting, U.S. officials insist. And suspicious congressmen were told the converted seaplane tender turned over to Ethiopia and maintained at $80,000 a year by the United States is a training ship for the Ethiopian navy, not a yacht for Emperor Haile Selassie.

But it does have wallpaper — about $124 worth.

These items got a prolonged going-over at closed hearings of a House Appropriations subcommittee April 5. The censored testimony was made public today.

Defending the allocations was Vice Adm. L. C. Heinz, director of military assistance.

Rep. Silvio O. Conte, R-Mass., observed that 20 shotguns have been delivered to Iran in the past 17 years and two more are included in the current budget.

"We delivered 16,000 rounds of ammunition for those shotguns, and they are asking for 3,000 shotgun shells in this budget," Conte said. "That's 21,000 rounds of shotgun shells for 20 shotguns. That covers a lot of clay pigeons. Their shoulders must be black and blue."

But Heinz quickly put in that the Iranian Gendarmier — "less than an army and more than a police" — has other shotguns and the ammunition is for all of them.

Rep. Otto Passman, D-La., suggested, "So we won't become bored, let's sidetrack a bit: What is some of the game they have out there? They have quail and dove, do they not?"

"I do not admit that there was any diversion," Heinz replied. In a moment, however, Conte had him in a discussion of U.S. Air Force training using shotguns. This target practice, Conte drew from Heinz, uses clay pigeons.

"That is good enough," Passman said, and the questioning went on:

Heinz: "This is not diversion, I say this is training."

The shotguns were described as "riot type, 12-gauge, 20-inch barrel."

Apparently All Nations U.S. Trades With Deal With North Vietnam

WASHINGTON (AP) — The president of the Export-Import Bank told Congress the United States will have few customers for its exports if it cuts off countries that trade with North Vietnam.

Despite that opinion given a House Appropriations subcommittee March 20 in previously secret testimony released today, the Senate wrote stiff restrictions Aug. 23 into a bill extending the charter of the bank. The bill now awaits House action.

Harold F. Linder, president of the government bank that assists U.S. exports with loans and guarantees, was asked his opinion about trading with Communist countries, and countries supplying North Vietnam.

"I think, sir, if we took all the countries that are trading with North Vietnam, no matter how small their trade may be, out of our list of those people who were eligible to get credit in connection with business which they did with the United States, we would have very few customers," Linder replied.

Under further questioning, he said, "All I am saying to you is that our biggest customer in this country is Canada. You know the amount of wheat that Canada has sold to Communist China. You know that Communist China has unquestionably provided food for North Vietnam."

During the Senate debate, opponents contended that even though the amendment refers only to governments supplying goods or supplies, any country whose nationals exported materials to North Vietnam, or whose merchant ships were used in such trade, would also be affected because nothing can be exported from any country without some government action.

A similar amendment offered in the House Banking Committee was defeated, but congressional leaders have held the House version of the bill back from a vote, fearing the House would take action similar to the Senate's. There has been talk of a compromise that would leave the question of trade with countries covered by the amendment up to presidential determination.

Nothing Is Found on State Bases

WASHINGTON (AP) — Local military base commanders investigating the prevalence of discrimination within commuting distances of their bases found very little in Arkansas, the Defense Department announced Thursday.

The state was rated at 72 per cent in connection with the department's survey of rental housing policies around military bases.

Commanders were ordered to determine how many multiple-unit rental facilities, such as apartments, trailer courts and housing developments, had open housing policies.

No discrimination was found in five states — Connecticut, New Hampshire, South Dakota, Oregon and Wisconsin. All five received ratings of 100 per cent.

Louisiana was given a rating of 34, Mississippi 49, Missouri 77, Oklahoma 68, Tennessee 64 and Texas 72.

Would Draft a New State Constitution

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Rep. Virgil Butler, a member of the state Constitutional Revision Study Commission, said Thursday that Arkansas should draft a new constitution for the benefit of their children and grandchildren.

Butler said a new constitution should be drafted so that descendants of present Arkansas residents would not suffer as have today's descendants of the drafters of the state's present document.

Butler made the remarks at a brief ceremony commemorating the 93rd anniversary of the adoption of Arkansas' 1874 constitution.

Butler said constitutional revision was moving slowly because of a general apathy among the people and because the administration in power in recent years did not want any change.

Purcell Plans Seminars

SALEM, Ark. (AP) — Atty. Gen. Joe Purcell said Thursday that the first of a series of seminars to be conducted by his office would be held here today.

The seminars, scheduled for September and October, primarily will deal with various law enforcement problems, such as legitimate cause for arrest and search and seizure.

be affected because nothing can be exported from any country without some government action.

A similar amendment offered in the House Banking Committee was defeated, but congressional leaders have held the House version of the bill back from a vote, fearing the House would take action similar to the Senate's. There has been talk of a compromise that would leave the question of trade with countries covered by the amendment up to presidential determination.

$306,000 Damage Suit Is Filed

BATESVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Fathers of three of the six youngsters killed in an auto-train collision June 16 at Newark (Independence County) filed damage suits totaling $306,000 in Circuit Court here Thursday.

Each of the suits filed by Billy Koontz, Kenneth Hackworth and Charles McClain, all of Newark, seek $102,000 from the Missouri Pacific Lines, Engineer Wayne Robertson of Memphis, Fireman B. D. Cleveland of Fayetteville and Conductor Jake Schuchardt of Wynne.

The alleged negligence on the part of the railroad for not having proper signal lights at its crossing on Arkansas 122 at Newark, about 15 miles south of here, and for permitting a string of freight cars to obstruct the view of traffic approaching the crossing from the south.

The suits contend the crew members were negligent in that they failed to blow the train's whistle or ring its bell as they approached and passed the crossing at a "dangerous and reckless rate of speed with disregard and indifference to the safety of motorists crossing the tracks."

A suit seeking a total of $101,500 from all the defendants except Schuchardt was filed about a month ago by Jack Milligan of Newark, father of another of the youngsters killed in the wreck.

Those killed were Ann Koontz, 12; Kelly Mitchell Hackworth, 15; Charles McClain, 14; Paul Dale Milligan, 13; Jack Lindsey, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lindsey of Newark, and Terry Self, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Self of Orange, Tex.

Cotton Crops Get a Boost

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas' cotton crops got a boost from heavy rains in the central portion of the state Thursday, but cool weather continued to hamper development in the northeast.

The crop ranges from three to five weeks late in the Blytheville area.

Roy Bass, agricultural statistician for the Crop Reporting Service, said the rains came in the nick of time for soybeans, which he said had reached a critical stage.

Many areas of the state still were short of moisture, but an overhead disturbance expected to move into the state last night could produce some rain.

Rain a little later this month would interfere with harvests, but harvest activity is limited now.

Thinks UN Should Try for Peace

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk said today the United Nations believes that the United Nations "has the responsibility under its charter" to do what it can to try to bring peace to Vietnam.

"We would welcome any contribution the U.N. can make to bring peace to Southeast Asia," Rusk told a news conference. He confirmed that the United States has been sounding out other countries on the possibility of United Nations action.

Stolen Goods Recovered in Arkansas

HARRISON, Ark. (AP) — Some $75,000 in merchandise reportedly stolen during the past three months from various Springfield, Mo., firms was recovered in and around Harrison late Thursday.

State troopers and deputies from the Boone County Sheriff's office, acting on information from Greene County, Missouri authorities, found more than 400 men's suits, valued at $43,000 plus several topcoats and sport coats stolen Monday night from a Springfield clothing store. They were discovered in a vacant farm house five miles north of here.

Authorities searched a warehouse in Harrison and found 11 of 22 television sets stolen Friday night, along with an assortment of other items ranging from fishing plugs to 800 cartons of cigarettes to 30 large truck tires.

No charges have been filed.

Decrease in Cotton Forecast

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department today estimated this year's government-restricted cotton crop at 8,185,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight. This is a decrease of 1,390,000 bales from last year.

Last month the department forecast the crop at 8,332,000 bales, the smallest since 1921. By comparison last year's production was 9,575,000 bales and the 1961-65 average was 14,935,000.

This year's crop, like last year's, is being grown under a government program offering substantial payments to growers for diverting a part of their cotton planting allotments out of use. The purpose of this program is to make room in the market for a surplus.

The department has reported that only about 9,724,000 of the 16 million acres allotted growers under a control program were planted to cotton this year.

Chemical Soil-Killers to Be Used for First Time in Vietnam War

By BOB HORTON

AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chemical soil-killers will be used in South Vietnam warfare for the first time under the Pentagon's new plan to create a barrier against infiltrating North Vietnamese troops.

The Pentagon said earth-polluting agents will be sprayed over the cleared barrier zone atop South Vietnam to prevent jungle growth from returning and providing concealment for invading Communists.

Introduction of the sterilants will add a new dimension — and perhaps a controversial one — to an already wide-ranging chemical program aimed at wiping out vegetation including crops in certain areas of South Vietnam.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara announced plans Thursday for the barrier — actually an early-warning zone sown with mines and electronic eyes and ears. He elaborated little about its operation.

Confirmation of the long-rumored move came at a news conference at which McNamara labeled Michigan Gov. George Romney, a Republican presidential hopeful, as "blind to the truth" in accusing the Johnson Administration of misleading the public about the war.

McNamara also announced: — The remaining two brigades of the 101st Airborne Division will be among the additional 45,000 men destined for the war zone by June 30.

— A new Army division, the 6th Infantry, is being created in January to offset troop deployments from strategic forces based in the United States.

— The Pentagon's open-house program will be spread nationwide to end what he called "a shameful story of discrimination" against Negro servicemen. Housing sites near military bases which refuse to admit Negro servicemen will be placed off limits to all military men in those areas.

McNamara barred few details about the proposed infiltration barrier other than to say its components would range "from barbed wire to highly sophisticated devices."

The idea is not to block the southward flow of enemy troops — McNamara said that can't be done — but to slow infiltrators while electronic alarms alert U.S. commanders. Mobile American units could then be rushed by helicopter and tank to the point of infiltration.

Bearden Plant Dedication

BEARDEN, Ark. (AP) — Dedication ceremonies were scheduled here at 2:30 p.m. today for the Bearden Lumber Co.'s new $500,000, all-electric sawmill.

Principal speakers were to be Rep. David Pryor, D-Ark., and Lt. Gov. Maurice Britt.

The mill will employ about 200 persons to handle some 30 million board feet of pine and hardwood lumber per year.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — T. L. James & Co., of Ruston, La., submitted an apparent low bid of $1,573,131 Thursday for the dredging of 10 million cubic yards of sand from the bed of the Arkansas River downstream from Lock and Dam No. 8, near Conway.

Col. Frank P. Bane, Little Rock District Army Engineer, said 12 bids were submitted on the project, which also includes removal of a sunken boat blocking the navigation channel about a mile and a half downstream from the lock and dam. The government estimate was $2,038,280.

Enemy Dead Since Monday Totals 700

By GEORGE MCARTHUR

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. Marines combed the jungles and paddy fields for Communist troops in South Vietnam's northern war zone today after turning the tables on a Red ambush and killing 92 of the enemy.

Far to the south, in the Mekong delta, South Vietnamese reported killing 54 members of the Viet Cong's Tay Do battalion, one of the most seasoned Red units in the delta.

Several big Marine sweeps were under way in the northern provinces where nearly 700 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong have been reported killed in hard fighting since Monday around Tam Ky, on the coast, and below the demilitarized zone some 140 miles to the northwest.

American casualties in the area total 115 dead and 382 wounded so far this week, the U.S. Command said.

Although no significant action was reported from the area since Thursday, the Strategic Air Command kept up two-day raids by its high-altitude B52 bombers to aid the Marines.

One strike Thursday night hit the A Shau Valley infiltration route, in the northwest corner of the country, which has been funneling supplies to the Reds fighting in Quang Nam and Quang Tin provinces.

A second strike early today hit the infiltration route through the demilitarized zone above the Marine outpost at Con Thien, the axis of much recent fighting.

The battles this week in the northernmost provinces — and scattered fighting elsewhere — ended decisively a lull in the ground war that had lasted more than two months. It was evident the Communists, freshly supplied and fairly close to their bases in North Vietnam, were mounting a new offensive in the North, but ranking U.S. officers declined to speculate on whether the Red goal was more battles of attrition to wear down American forces, a campaign to take control of one of the politically sensitive provinces, which seemed unlikely, or something else.

The Communists were evidently also preparing new rocket attacks in the North similar to previous bloody assaults on the big U.S. air base at Da Nang. Marine fighter-bomber pilots reported finding and destroying 36 rocket positions in the northern battle area Thursday.

LBJ Reads Congressional Record Daily

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's favorite morning reading is a pulp paper magazine that often caters to his key critics—The Congressional Record.

It's a good place to find out what's being said about him and his administration. And, some sources say, the President is not above planting an item or two to tell his side of the story. He's so anxious to get the Record every day that a special White House messenger is dispatched to pick it up hot off the Government Printing Office press, sometimes before dawn. Usually by 7 a.m., a special White House aide is hard at work culling through the pages of the Record to clip items and mark sections for Johnson's attention.

Often, after he reads the daily digest of the procedures of House and Senate, speeches of members and items they have inserted in the appendix, John-

Crossett Has Usual Talent

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sportswriter

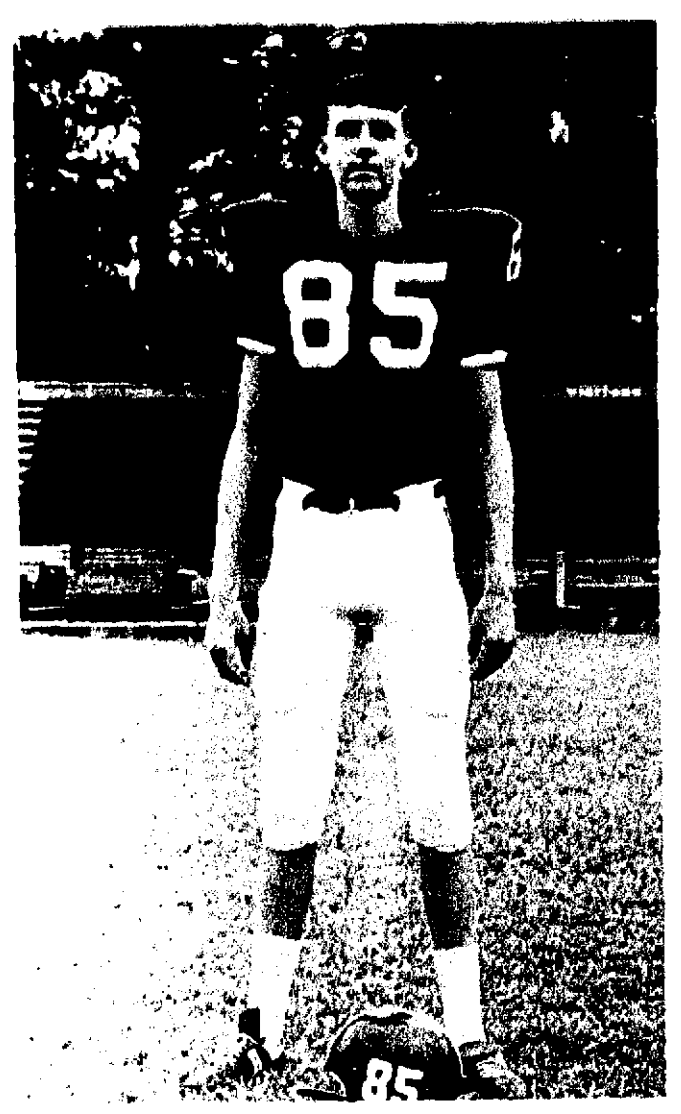

Champions of 4-AA the past two years, the Crossett Eagles seem to be shorter than usual for talent and might not take that title in 1967.

Most predictors have scratched their heads and came up with Crossett as the likely favorite again this season. This writer does not see how. Head coach John Pierce is said to have a strong defense ready in his successful platooning system. With only two defensive starters returning, Pierce should be coach of the year if he can come up with a defense half as tough as last year's.

Even though depth will not be a great problem, finding some hard-nosed linemen will be. Travis Brantley (165) and Jerry Morgan (170) are probably the only sure starters. And Coach Pierce has no backfield men who have performed outstandingly in the past. Tommy Holliman (145) will most likely be calling the signals, but from there it's a dogfight.

In order to have any title chances, many boys will have to come through with Cinderella years, or else the few returning starters will have to go both ways effectively. But the Eagles of Crossett will still win some ball games with a long winning tradition.

Cats Meet Prescott at 8 Tonight

BY RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sportswriter

Well, tonight's the night. The Hope Bobcats begin their home schedule at Hammons Stadium against those rivals from Nevada County, the Prescott Curley Wolves, with kickoff scheduled for 8:00 p.m.

And who could ask for a better match to provoke enthusiasm for the local backers. Hope and Prescott have been playing football for many years now, and it's been a mighty long time since the Bobcats have lost to the Curley Wolves. Last year Prescott nearly broke the ice, fighting up to a 6-6 tie. That game felt like a defeat in the minds of the Bobcats, and many of the same players are out to get revenge.

The Bobcats are 1-0 on the year, and Prescott is 0-1. Records make no difference in this series, but Hope is the favorite. And, if the Cats play the brand of football they are capable of playing, that prediction should prove to be correct. It will take better ball handling and more cautious tactics, though, as the Curley Wolves are a better ball club than the Arkadelphia team we defeated last Friday night.

Just try to be present tonight at 8:00 p.m. at Hammons Stadium, and you will truly see an enjoyable contest between the Hope Bobcats and the Prescott Curley Wolves. The game also will be broadcast live over KXAR, beginning at 7:00 p.m. with "Let's Talk Football."

In four World Series appearances, the Buckeye better from Columbus, Ohio, has earned $126,000. Currently Nicklaus is the leading money winner on the golf tour with $156,000.

However, a victory this weekend will not add to his official money-winning total because the series, although sanctioned by the PGA, does not qualify as an official event.

The Series winds up Sunday and in case of a tie there will be a sudden-death playoff.

Nicklaus Is Playing Round at Akron

By JOE MOOSHL

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Jack Nicklaus' gigantic shadow will grace the Firestone Country Club today in the unofficial practice round for the 36-hole World Series of Golf beginning Saturday.

Nicklaus, who has made the tournament his personal jackpot, was not around earlier in the week while his three rivals were exploring the 7,180-yard layout with a demanding par of 35-35-70.

Nicklaus, the U.S. Open champion; Roberto de Vincenzo, winner of the British Open; Masters champion Gay Brewer, and PGA titlist Don January will be shooting for a top prize of $50,000 in a showdown of champions.

Second place is worth $15,000, third $7,500 and fourth $5,000. The World Series, a new ex-

Yerger High Tigers Open Sept. 9

Yerger High Tigers will open the 1967-68 season Saturday night Sept. 9 at Hammon Stadium. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

Yerger will play host to Lewisville Pirates, who will outweigh the Tigers 10 pounds per man. The Tigers are out to win this game. But the Pirates moreso for they are seeking revenge over the Tigers who won last season by a score of 20-6.

The Tigers will field a young team with the exception of about even veterans. The Tigers are now in the building stage, they have changed their offense to a pro-type. The coaching staff is Willie Tate, Head coach and offense; D. G. Burkett, Defense coach; George Straughter, Asst. coach.

KC Player, Owner Dispute to Be Aired

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The running feud between Kansas City Athletics baseball players and their owner, Charles O. Finley, headed toward a hearing before Commissioner William Eckert as the A's unlimbered further charges Thursday on two fronts.

Eckert announced in New York that the dispute had been set for a hearing Monday in his office.

His announcement had barely been made when the Major League Baseball Players Association filed an unprecedented unfair practices charge against Finley before the National Labor Relations Board.

And Lew Krausse, A's pitcher whose suspension and fine by the league precipitated the squabble, charged that Finley had intimidated him into making a statement that the owner was justified in his fine and suspension. Krausse also said Finley had repeatedly tried to get him to influence other players to withdraw their request for a grievance hearing before the baseball commissioner.

"He's through scaring me," Krausse was quoted as saying

Traded Player Only Wants to Hurt Browns

DETROIT (AP) — Roger Brown may be gone, but his parting shot is likely to make him remembered—at least among his ex-teammates, the Detroit Lions.

"I hope I'm around long enough to hurt the Lions," said Brown.

That, he told newsmen, was how he broke the news to his wife that he had been traded Thursday.

In a move apparently aimed at rebuilding the Lions' sagging National Football League club, players in an attempt to coerce them into withdrawing their pending grievances" and "by so doing has interfered with, restrained and coerced players in the exercise of their individual rights which are guaranteed by law."

the Lions sent the 300-pound defensive tackle to the Los Angeles Rams.

The Rams return three future draft choices—No. 1 choice in 1967 and two "exceptionally high" choices in 1968, the Lions said.

Brown, 30, Detroit's No. 1 draft choice in 1960 after college football at Maryland State, played seven seasons at Detroit, but injured his left knee three years ago and underwent corrective surgery last February.

Schmidt, Lions' new head coach, explained the trade by saying, "we are looking to the future and feel our younger players are adequate."

The younger men, who will be looked on to fill the gap made by the trade, are Jerry Rush, a third year player, and Denis Moore, a rookie from Southern California.

Los Angeles picked Brown to replace Roosevelt Grier, the 287-pounder who suffered a torn right achilles tendon last Friday in the Ram victory over Kansas City.

Appeals for Mercy for Cassius Clay

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — The National Baptist Convention USA, Inc., appealed to the courts and the World Boxing Association Thursday to show some "mercy, grace and clemency" toward Cassius Clay, deposed world heavyweight boxing champion.

The petition submitted by the convention asked that consideration be given Clay, who prefers to be known by the Muslim name of Muhammad Ali, "because we believe there is more an error in judgment than a vicious intent against his nation."

The Baptist Convention asked the WBA to grant him probationary or similar status which would permit him to return to the boxing arena.

In its request to the courts the convention, representing a

Hope Junior Team Licks Prescott

BY RALPH ROUNTON

Giving their new coach a fine present, the Hope Junior High Bobkittens battled to a 13-0 hard-fought victory over the Prescott juniors last night at Hammons Stadium.

Bobkitten Head coach Caylord Solomon was coaching in his first game of the season, and he certainly started off the right way. The Hope team was in fine shape, and mentally prepared to face the tough opponent in their first ball game of the season.

The first quarter was merely a time to get settled down from the early jitters of the first game, with neither team putting together too much of an offensive threat. Then, with 6:10 remaining in the first half, the Kittens climaxed a long sustained drive with a short pass from Ronnie Massanelli to Danny Putman for the TD. Extra point was good, and Hope led 6-0.

From there on the slugfest continued, with neither team able to put the pigskin over the goal. The Bobkitten line, as well as the backs, performed very adequately for this early in the season, and the team should greatly improve as the schedule progresses.

The final tally for the Kittens was made by lineman Randy Wright, by way of a few wild circumstances. Late in the game the Bobkitten defense blitzed through quicker than usual, and the Prescott ball carrier fumbled. Wright picked the ball up, and set off on a 40-yard jaunt aided by two beautiful blocks. Pass for the point after was complete from Massanelli to Charles Rateliff, and the Kittens had it sewed up 13-0.

The Hope "B" team suffered defeat at Spring Hill, La., yesterday afternoon by the score of 41-6. The lone Hope TD was scored in the third period on a pass from John Spraggins to Gary Hollis.

Twins Still on Top by Slim Margin

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Jim Lonborg, down about 20 pounds from his normal weight, says he's a little tired. The New York Yankees, down about 20 games from their normal position, are not impressed.

Lonborg, the ace Boston right-hander, threw his second three-hitter against the Yankees in nine days Thursday night, leading the Red Sox to a 3-1 victory, Minnesota, beating Baltimore 4-2, remained in first place in the American League, one percentage point over Boston.

The victories shattered the virtual four-way tie as Detroit and Chicago, idle Thursday, fell half a game off the pace.

Lonborg's victory over the Yankees, now mired in ninth place 17½ games off the pace at a time when they're usually running away with the flag, was all but a carbon copy of the one in New York on Aug. 29.

In both cases, the score was 3-1. In both cases, Lonborg gave up only three hits. In both cases, a home run by Tom Tresh spoiled the shutout.

In the National League, St. Louis crushed New York 9-2, San Francisco shaded Houston 3-2 in 15 innings, Cincinnati beat Philadelphia 3-1, Pittsburgh took Atlanta 4-2 and the Chicago Cubs nipped Los Angeles 3-2 in 12 innings.

"I think I'm a little tired," Lonborg said when his 19th victory was in the books. "It's been a long season for me. I started out weighing 215 and I'm down to about 195. But don't get me wrong. I'm not so tired that I can't contribute my share down the stretch."

Rico Petrocelli provided the power for the Red Sox, driving in two runs with his 14th homer and a double. Lonborg himself provided the other one with a ground-rule double.

The Twins hung onto their precarious lead with two runs in the eighth inning. Tony Oliva delivered a double that cracked a 2-2 tie and Bob Allison's single sent Oliva in. Dean Chance won his 18th game, stopping the Orioles on four hits.

Harmon Killebrew of the Twins hit home run No. 36.

RALPH ROUTON

Entering his first football season as the Hope Star Sportswriter is Ralph Routon, a sophomore at Hope High School. He succeeds Larry Don Wright, the sportswriter for the past two years.

Routon, 15, actually has been the Star Sportswriter since the opening of track season in early March of this year. He gained journalistic experience the past few years by helping out the regular sportswriter from time to time. He has served as statistician for nearly every athletic team in Hope High and Junior High the last several years. Also, he is a letterman on the Hope High golf team, and last spring participated in the district and state championships as a freshman.

Ralph is employed as an announcer by KXAR, and handles the play-by-play broadcasts of all the Bobcat games. A member of the First Methodist Church in Hope, he is serving as president of his church youth group. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Routon of Hope.

Cousy Admits Only to Indiscretion

BOSTON (AP) — Bob Cousy, former All-America whiz and one of pro basketball's all-time great players, was reported under sedation today after admitting a close friendship with an alleged gambler, but denying any wrongdoing.

A reliable source said Cousy, now coach at Boston College, was given sedatives at his Worcester home by a doctor less than two hours after he struggled through a tear-filled news conference Thursday at the BC alumni hall.

"I suppose I'm guilty of indiscretion," Cousy admitted between sobs at the 70-minute meeting with both sports and news reporters.

"But I'm not guilty of anything else," he added. "If you're guilty of something, or have something to hide, you're evasive. And I don't sneak around."

Disregarding advice of friends to merely issue a statement, Cousy elected to face probing questions in his reply to a Life magazine article linking Boston athletes with gamblers.

He said the article reported he was friendly with Andrew Pradella and Francesco Scibelli, both of Springfield, Mass., and identified by the magazine as associated with gambling.

Cousy denied any close relationship with Scibelli, but said he and Pradella had been close friends for many years. He said the friendship developed while Pradella's sons attended Cousy's summer basketball camp from 1954 to 1964.

Cousy said Edward McNamara, now Boston police commissioner, told him "about four years ago" that an investigation of gambling in Massachusetts was under way. He quoted McNamara as saying Pradella was involved in the investigations.

"What do you do when someone comes up and tells you a good friend has become a gambler, or is a gambler?" Cousy asked.

"To this day I have no evidence that he's a gambler. He never has tried to capitalize on our friendship in any way."

BC Athletic Director Bill Flynn said after the news conference: "We feel the same as we always have about Bob Cousy. This is a very unfortunate situation. I can't speak for everyone at the college, but I believe in him."

Cousy was an All-America player at Holy Cross and later starred with the Boston Celtics of the National Basketball Association for 13 years before retiring to become coach at Boston College in 1963.

Gibson Is Winner for Cardinals

The day was perfect for newlywed Chris Short until the Cincinnati Reds crashed his wedding reception.

Short, Philadelphia's 29-year-old southpaw ace, took a bride Thursday afternoon, then pitched five perfect innings against Cincinnati Thursday night.

But Leo Cardenas' leadoff single in the sixth ended the hitless string. Tommy Harper poked another single, Tommy Helms walked and Lee May smacked a bases-loaded triple, ruining Short's evening and giving the Reds a 3-1 victory over the Phillies.

In other National League games, St. Louis clubbed the New York Mets 9-2 behind Bob Gibson, San Francisco nipped Houston 3-2 in 15 innings, Pittsburgh downed Atlanta 4-2 and the Chicago Cubs squeezed past Los Angeles 3-2 in 12 innings.

Minnesota defeated Baltimore 4-2 and Boston topped the New York Yankees 3-1 in the only games on the American League schedule.

Short married Marsha Hickling of Largo, Fla., in Valley Forge, Pa., after a dizzy whirl of wedding preparations that began Wednesday when the Phillies stepped off a plane from Atlanta.

The couple, who met at the Phillies' Clearwater, Fla., spring training base last spring, obtained a marriage license one minute before the license bureau closed Wednesday.

May's triple gave Milt Pappas a 3-0 lead and the Cincinnati right-hander went on to post his 15th victory with ninth-inning help from Ted Abernathy.

Gibson, pitching for the first time since July 15, when a line drive by Roberto Clemente cracked a bone in his right leg, worked five innings and was credited with his 11th victory.

The Cards' ace was tagged for eight hits before turning over an 8-1 lead to reliever Larry Jaster, but said afterward the leg hadn't bothered him.

Dal Maxvill paced the Cards' 16-hit attack with three singles and a double while Roger Maris and Julian Javier connected for homers. Bob Schroder singled with two out in the 15th inning at San Francisco, took second when Ken Henderson was nicked by a pitch and scored the winning run on Jesus Alou's single. The loss was Houston's eighth in a row. The Giants have won six straight.

Jim Hart's infield hit in the ninth knocked in the tying run for the Giants, climaxing a two-run rally.

The Pirates forged a 4-0 lead on run-scoring singles by pitcher Tommie Sisk and Maury Wills in the fourth inning and a two-run fifth keyed by doubles by Clemente and Jerry May.

B Team Victim of Springhill

The Hope B Team went to Springhill, La., yesterday and lost 41 to 6. It was a bruising contest that actually ended after only three quarters of play.

Head Coach Freddie Glaze said the game was called by mutual consent due to a heavy downpour, the one-sided score and several players were hurt on both sides. The condition of the field made it dangerous for the boys.

Brittenum Is Traded to Chargers

BOCA RATON, Fla. (AP)—Rookie quarterback Jon Brittenum, who made only one appearance in an exhibition game with the Miami Dolphins, was traded to the San Diego Chargers Thursday.

Brittenum, who signed with the Dolphins after a starring career at the University of Arkansas, was traded for a third-round choice in the next American Football League draft.

In his single exhibition performance, Brittenum was held to four completions in 18 passes by the Buffalo Bills.

It was generally understood that the Dolphins would deal off either Brittenum, who received $60,000 to sign, or Rick Norton, a second-year, $300,000 bonus quarterback. Norton was hampered by injuries last season and has not performed up to expectations this year.
